Thanks to everyone who has supported and encouraged this project from its inception through to the launch of this trial.

The costs of producing the All In Diary have been supported by funds from RedR, and some very special friends and family. Without this it would still be an idea floating around our heads.

The production of the diary has been generously subsidised by:

- Filofax, UK, for the wallets
- Stewarts of Edinburgh, UK, for the printing
- Fahamu, Oxford, UK, for the CD design and production
- Hirografix, Edinburgh, UK, for the logo design and website support
- Communicate, Edinburgh, UK, for the pens
- Morton Fraser Solicitors, Edinburgh, UK, for legal advice
- People in Aid, London, UK, for concept development and project administration
- Design Links, Edinburgh, UK, for initial design ideas

We would also like to thank the members of our peer review, who took the time to provide valuable feedback on the information pages and they are:
